“ *Leslie and family,
Larry was simply the best of the best. I had the privilege of working for him for several years and he was such a decent, kind and generous man. I had many opportunities to speak with him and I never heard one word of sadness or despair. He was a man of faith and was well prepared for his journey. We are all left with a sad, hollow feeling but I take comfort in knowing that Larry has been welcomed home by the Lord. Well deserved, my friend. You are missed by so many....*

“ I mourn the loss of my very best Pard. Larry D and I have been friends for over 30 years and have done many things together that most people only imagine. "Hey Pard, let's jump on one of those crowd killers and head out West and ski for a few days" was a typical thing to do at the drop of a hat. We were asked one day by someone "What do you guys do?" Larry D answered "Show off." Because we were always together there are many stories like this. Larry D had the biggest heart and was always there to help when needed.

My condolences to Leslie, Isaac, Andy, Nell, Joe, Doc, and the rest of the Kennedy Clan, I know only too well the void that is left as I feel the void also.

I will miss my old Pard and look forward in seeing him again in the here after. rest in peace Pard.
