“ When I think back to my childhood days I have many wonderful memories of Ms. Hays. She always made me feel special, from making me doll clothes or knitting a blanket. She made Sunday school fun, and taught me as a young child about Jesus and his wonderful plan for us. She was a sweet lady, and she will be greatly missed.

“ I have very fond memories of Ms Hays. When I was a child she would let me sleep over and bake the yummiest cookies after church. I watched her lovingly care for many babies in the church nursery and sing "pony boy" to my youngest brother, which we now all sing to our children. She was a fine Chrstian lady. I am sure Jesus welcomed her with open arms and said "well done!" You will be missed.
