

Laurence "Larry" A. Pinsky

March 14, 2017

Laurence A. "Larry" Pinsky, recently returned to his beloved Atlanta, went to his final reward on March 13, 2017. That reward included a release from the severe and chronic pain that Larry had suffered bravely for these last two decades. Larry didn't suffer fools lightly, and so we thought it best to get right to the point, lest he haunt our dreams for being such fools.

Mr. Laurence A. Pinsky was a by God free-thinking man, and a libertarian by inclination. He enjoyed tweaking his oldest brother's liberal leanings whenever possible, and also enjoyed gently tormenting his next oldest brother when he deemed it appropriate, which was often. A man with strong beliefs and opinions, he was also a friend to the weak and powerless, and was the guy at the end of the bar who would approach the neighborhood bully and suggest with a fearsome look in his eye that he pick on someone his own size. Fiercely loyal, Larry made many friends, whom he also tormented occasionally. But those he loved could always count on him having their back. He was an original, and his family (and friends) will miss him dearly.

Larry is survived by his brother Stephen "Steve" Pinsky and wife Mary, his brother Michael "Mike" Pinsky, wife Debbie and son Josh (Larry's kindred spirit), and by many cousins, nieces and nephews. Funeral arrangements are by Flanigan Funeral Home, 4400 S. Lee Street, Buford, Georgia 30518. Visitation is on Sunday, March 19, 2017 from 1:30 to 3:30, with memorial service to follow. Y'all come.

Tribute Wall

“ Laurence "Larry" A. Pinsky

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ Rest in Peace Larry!

Steve & Tammy Wright - March 19, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ I didn't know Larry very well but the time I spent with him I was always impressed by his wit and more his generous heart!

May you rest in peace Larry.

Betty McKeon - March 19, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ My life is richer because you were in it Larry. I will keep you in my heart always.

Leah Simpson - March 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM