“ Travis and I are heartbroken over the passing of Leatha. She was one of the most devoted wife and mother in the world. She was so intelligent, funny and just a beautiful person. Travis and I always loved hearing Robbie talk about her to us, telling us how she would go shopping. For example, she would go to 2 or 3 groceries stores to buy their groceries because she wanted to find the best for her family. We know how close they were with their little Chihuahuas. They truly loved their little dogs. She will be missed so very much. We are praying for Robbie and the entire family. No matter what you say when you have a friend that is hurting, we can't make anything better. We just are praying for our friend. We love you, Robbie, with all our hearts.
