

Lena Tieleman Wessels

December 10, 2017

Lena Jacoba Wessels, 89, of Braselton, Georgia, passed away on December 10, 2017, after a prolonged illness. Lena was born in The Hague, Netherlands, on February 28, 1928, and graduated from school in sGravenhage, Netherlands. She came to America with her husband and first born, Peter, in 1953, and settled in the Chicago area for almost 40 years. The family moved to Florida in 1968. She worked as an electronics assembler for Bendix/AlliedSignal/Honeywell for many years and enjoyed knitting, crocheting, and camping, among other interests. Lena is preceded in death by her husband Peter J Wessels. They were married for 57 years. Lena is survived by her three children Virginia M Hollifield, Carol L Shields, and Peter J Wessels Jr; her four grandchildren Tyler G Hollifield, Cassandra J Shields, Jessica L Shields, and Kelsey A Wessels; and two great grandchildren, Cara and Erik Hollifield. She was preceded in death by her twin sister Mary van Daal. The cremation service was at Flanigan Funeral Home on December 11, 2017. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be given to The Humane Society of Jackson County, Jefferson, Georgia.

“ When someone you love dies, for some, it's like a piece of you goes with them. For others, it is a relief because they know they suffer no more. However, Jehovah God knows our deepest emotions. He understands that death is an enemy that we can't fight. That's why he promises that death will be swallowed up forever. (Isaiah 25:8). Also the Bible calls death the last enemy that will be brought to nothing (1 Corinthians 15:26). We also are promised a paradise here on earth where there is no more pain or sorrow and God himself will wipe every tear from our eyes. (Revelation 21:3,4). For more BIBLE truth please visit JW.ORG

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I can't even begin to imagine the pain that you are experiencing. However, Jehovah God is someone who always knows how you feel and wants to you bring you comfort and hope. His Word the Bible promises: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted. He saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34 verse 18) I hope this brings some measure of comfort to you, knowing you have someone to depend on while you endure the pain. <https://vimeo.com/237368772>
