“ Terri, It's been many years since we've seen each other, but I remember well the good times we shared together at sleepovers, camping, and riding bikes. Your mom always welcomed me into your home. I was saddened to hear of her passing. I am praying for God's comfort and peace for all of you.

“ Lee was a good friend and beautiful example to me through the years. I really enjoyed singing beside her in many Shadowbrook choir performances. Tom and I are both saddened by her passing, yet joyful in the hope of Glory she is now experiencing. Much love to the whole family.
