Linda Sue Rector, known to many as “Momma Sue,” age 80, of Suwanee, GA, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, May 14, 2025. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of forty-five years, V. T. “ I met Sue at Embracing Hospice when she stayed around the clock with her husband as he passed. On the last couple of days we realized we are from the same area in Va.. We soon figured out why we became such good friends. We told many stories and felt that God had put us together for a reason. We stayed in touch for a while but I feel now I should have stayed closer. Victor and Sue became my favorite patient and I can still see us standing together at the bedside when Victor passed. Sue and Victor became a forever memory in my profession as a Hospice Nurse. Blessings and prayers for the family she loved.

“ Ms. Rector will forever be my favorite teacher. She comes across my mind often. I visited with her when she had her first child and seen the joy in her heart. She and Mr. Rector were so welcoming every time I visited their home. She will be missed by so many.

“ From the first moment we met her, Mrs. Sue has been the kindest neighbor, and became a part of our family - our American "baba" (grandma). She never failed to celebrate a birthday, graduation, or Christmas, sharing her love through a card or a thoughtful gift. We will deeply miss her witty spirit, grace, and kindness. Rest in peace, Baba Sue!

“ Momma Sue was one of my biggest cheerleaders when I was playing sports, of any kind, in high school. I am a year younger than Kelly and Momma Sue loved every student that went to or competed against Patrick Henry High School. I was drawn to someone who made it so obvious that she loved everyone and I think seeing her love on everyone, is what most people will think of when remembering Momma Sue. She continued to be a big cheerleader in my adult life as well. I just exchanged cards with her a few short years ago as my girls graduated from Patrick Henry High School. What a beautiful legacy she leaves.
