“ Kathy and Steve, I am so sorry to hear about your mom's passing. I'm also sorry to say I hadn't spoken with her in years. As the matriarchs and patriachs of a family pass, the cousins just don't stay in touch. My husband Bruce (deceased) and your dad and their cousin Tommy were apparently inseparable as kids and had quite some tales to tell. I first met your mom and dad when Bruce and I were dating over 40 years ago and enjoyed many hours of visiting and card-playing with them. Please email me if you have a chance. Perhaps we can arrange a get-together of the children and grandchildren of Bruce Roberts, Steve Rentz, and Tommy Lennett. I will keep you in my prayers, and I apologize for being so tardy in sending my sympathies.

“ Linda, I feel so very blessed to have spent some time with you during the luncheons in Minot when you were back to visit. It is hard to believe you are with the angels. As a classmate, we spent some fun years together. I send sympathies to your family in GA and ND.
