“ Lisa you were my second cousin on my Mama's side of the family(Adams). My Mama Virginia Adams Hornbuckle was the sister to your granddaddy Fid Adams. It appears you were much loved and will be greatly missed. I'm sorry we never got to meet one another.

Your family is in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time of lose.

Your cousin in SC.

“ To the Mathis and Criswell family, Lisa was a blessing and loved by her Cursillo family, especially team #88 when she served on the ladies team and spread her spirit of joy and love to all she served and served with. May she leave you with her spirit of love to sustain you as she is embraced in heaven to be with our Lord. Sending you prayers, love and hugs. ~ Kim & Fred Duckett

“ Hey maw paw, I know you in a much better place then this hell, but god I miss you already. You were literally the person I could tell anything and everything and know it wasn't going to go anywhere but the war I told it to. You were always there listening to me and giving advice. God you were an amazing person . I miss you already and I'm sure pawpaw does too. We all love you and I'm sorry I always skipped going to your house I'm sure it made you feel like shit, and what my younger siblings told you. I love you beautiful we will meet again one day. Untill then fly high
