“ Lou and Jimmy,
Wayne, Christy and I were so sorry to hear of Lisa's death. Lisa has been a special person in our lives since she and Christy were young girls. Christy and Lisa have visited each other, talked on the phone and laughed and cried and shared a wonderful friendship over the years just as and Lou and I have shared problems and advice with each other. We have been so blessed to have your family be a part of our lives.
As Christy and I talked and came to terms with Lisa's death Wednesday morning, we reminisced about Lisa's warm, loving personality and will always remember Lisa as a funny, beautiful, smart and colorful young lady who brightened up the whole world around her.
Our prayers are with you at this time in your life.
Beth, Wayne and Christy

“ Jimmie and Lou, I am so sorry at the passing of Lisa. She was such a unique individual who never met a stranger. The way she would knit her eyebrows and put on that scowl when she disapproved of something always cracked me up. Lee and I are always here for you, now and in the coming weeks and months. May God grant you his peace.

“ Lisa faced the challenges of her life with a smile, and it was often contagious because she made others smile as well. I am thankful for the eight years I got to spend with her and have many cherished memories of our time together. I know she will be missed by many. Jimmie and Linda, you have shown your courage and tenacity in supporting Lisa throughout her life in helping her deal with her challenges. No one knows all that you have faced and overcome, but I know Lisa loves and appreciates all you did for her. My prayers are with you in these difficult days.
