“ We are shocked and very saddened to learn of Lois' passing. We last talked to her just after her birthday in January. We will miss her phone calls and her summer visits to Ohio, where we would reminisce about the old days of our lives in WV and Ohio. Before moving to to Georgia, she and Philip were a big part of our lives in Ohio. We share our deepest sorrow and sympathy to all of her family. Lyndell and Ann Gum (brother-in-law & sister-in-law)

“ Lonnie Lehman family, March 10, 2014
Lois was a joy to know. My parents, Paul and Patty Chandler, and my family all loved her so. She had such energy and always made such an effort to stay in touch. Her words of comfort and caring were so appreciated when my parents passed away. She had a gift for making you smile and always was so sincere and caring. She suffered great loss in her life but still remained hopeful and joyful. She was much admired by us all and will be greatly missed.
