When I think of my dear friend, Lois, I recall a verse that was always a perfect metaphor for her.
“Don't bring me flowers, just one rose will do.” She was a beautiful Pink Rose...elegant, compassionate, regal, and composed. She never met a stranger, and they always remembered her.
We shared 42 years of laughter and fun, tears and sadness, and just being best friends.
She is at peace with God, but she will always have a special place in my heart.
Love you Lois, Gloria
