“ Mrs. Lois was one of the kindest, most sweet people I have ever met. She was a blessing to all who were fortunate enough to know her.

The world will not be the same without her, but Heaven is so happy she's there! I love you, Lois.

“ Mrs. Lois had a fantastic memory. As her eyes got worse, I would help her with cleaning her house.

At Christmas time, 2020, she wanted to send out cards, and knew exactly where she had the envelopes from the previous year (she had saved them for some who had new mailing return addresses), and I was able to go get them for her without any trouble. I love her so much. She was truly a blessing to me and so many others.

Because of Jesus's sacrifice for us, I'll see you in Heaven, Lois.

“ My condolences to the family.
I got the opportunity to meet Granny through Ginny. The time I spent with her was awesome.
I shared with her that Publix would give a $10 gift card if you took your flu shot there. She then decided to do that and would use it towards her Thanksgiving turkey.
She had me pick up her turkey immediately upon going on sale (she loved a deal 😊). Once I bought the turkey put it in the freezer in the garage. I told her, and thought we agreed I would be there Monday morning before Thanksgiving to take it to the refrigerator inside. I got there early Monday morning, she let me in, talked a little bit then I said I am going to take the turkey out the freezer. She began to laugh with that beautiful laughter that she had. I asked "what did you do"?
She said "I moved it myself last night".
With her walker, stepped down into the garage, to the freezer got that 18 pound turkey back into the house, to the fridge and deposited it in there.
I jokingly said "you need a spanking", to which she laughed the more!!

She was a joy to know.
Wish I knew her sooner.

Again condolences
