"Granny" was first and foremost a believer in Jesus Christ, and a Baptist by choice. She was a member of Peachtree Road Baptist Church for over seventy years and modeled what a Proverbs 31 lady should look like to all those who knew her. She was Granny not only to her own family, but to those neighbors and friends who were fortunate to know her as well. “ Bonnie, Connie, Danny and Janet, I am so sorry to find out about your loss. I did not know about Lonnie Mae's passing until this afternoon (Monday, March 3rd.) when I got around to reading yesterday's "Gwinnett Daily." Had I known, I would have gone to the funeral home and funeral which would have been the least I could have done because your parents were dear friends of my parents. After my parents were not able to get out Willie would go to their house for visits that they enjoyed so much and my Mom would tell me that Lonnie Mae always send them something good to eat.

Just recently when I was looking at some old pictures in our album, there was a photo of Lonnie Mae and my Mom that was made with a Beginners Sunday School class they taught at Old Field Church a long time ago. I remember seeing your parents at church as far back as I can remember. I have only good memories of both your parents.

I appreciate all the kindness your entire family has shown to my family.

I understand the loss you feel but I hope the fond memories you have will always help fill the empty spot in your heart.

Take care.
Peggy
