“ My friend has gained her wings and my heart is overwhelmed. Memories of your wide smile, your classy fashion sense and your sassy demeanor coupled with your unique infectious laugh drew me to you. You welcomed our family into your family without reservation. Your genuine love for your family and the Buford community sprinkled with conversations about everything and nothing grew our friendship. Well done Loretha, take your rest until we meet again. I will miss you my friend. May God comfort your family and friends during this time and in the days to come.
