She was predeceased by her parents, James and Bridget (Pagliarulo) Catino, and two sisters, Jane Hunt and Barbara Banks. She is survived by her husband of sixty-eight years, Eugene P. Capasse, Palm Coast, FL; children, Gene and Nancy Capasse, Olathe, KS, James Capasse, Suwanee, GA, Michael Capasse, Seymour, CT, Jon and Lee Ann Capasse, Buford, GA, and Patricia and John Clancy, Trumbull, CT; grandchildren, Patrick and Meredith Capasse, Kennesaw, GA, Christopher Capasse, Fairhope, AL, Brianne Clancy, Trumbull, CT and Kayla Clancy, Trumbull, CT; sister, Sally and Ken Schlegel, Palm Coast, FL; numerous nieces and nephews. They raised their family in Stamford before moving to Stratford, CT, and then on to Palm Coast, FL in 1999. Lorraine's last employer was the Town of Beverly Beach, FL where she held the position of Town Clerk until she retired. She was an avid reader, loved music and old movies, made great chili, enjoyed shopping at malls and flea markets alike, traveling, cruising, visiting Saratoga during horse racing season, and after retiring she learned to play golf which she enjoyed with her husband (almost as much as putting together her golf outfits), but more than anything, she loved spending time with her family, as supported by her insistence that a family golf tournament also include a family reunion, which has occurred annually for 20 years. Memorial service to be determined at a later date. In lieu of flowers, etc., please make a donation to either Cure PSP (psp.org) or Alzheimer's (www.alz.org).
