

Lorraine J. (Holmes) Rose

October 10, 2014

Lorraine J. (Holmes) Rose, age 86, died peacefully in Buford, Ga. on October 10, 2014. Born, raised and educated in Gloucester, Ma, the daughter of Gardner and AnnaBell (Burns) Holmes.

She is predeceased by her brothers Gardner (Tucky) Holmes and Donald Holmes. She is also predeceased by husband Gilbert F. Rose after 67 years of marriage and by three grandsons. She is survived by her sister Phyllis (Holmes) Curcuru and by her children David Rose (wife Shan) of Anthem, Az., Pamela (Rose) DiMascio (husband Livio (Lee) of Buford, Ga. and Glenn Rose of Gloucester. She is also survived by four grandchildren, five great grandchildren, one great-great grandchild and several nieces and nephews. Lorraine celebrated life and remained active until three years ago. While in Gloucester, she was active in Girl Scouts, belonged to the Guild of Our Lady, was a member of the Women's Club and Red Hat Society. She swam daily at the Mariner Pool and saved her summers for Plum Cove Beach with family and friends. She held season tickets for the Northshore Music Theater for many years. She traveled around the world with her sister and their husbands, was a gourmet cook, studied oil painting from local artist Theresa Wonson and became quite accomplished. She moved to Buford, Ga. in 2005 and continued to swim at Bogan Park. Always an avid reader, she joined a neighborhood book club and enjoyed going to the Ladies Luncheons. She was a beloved Mother, wife and friend. She will leave her legacy of Love, laughter and friendship to all the lives she touched.

Tribute Wall

“ Lorraine J. (Holmes) Rose

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM