“ Dear Julie and family, So sorry for your loss. Thankfully the new world is just at the door and death and all the sorrow we feel will be replaced with tears of joy. And even more so when we greet our resurrected loved ones.

Much love to you and your family,
Chris (Hamilton) & Dean Gill

“ Our dearest Julie and family,
'Just see yourself, just see mom too; just see us all in a world that is new. Think how you'll feel, how it will be, to live in peace, to be truly free.' May our Great God Jehovah, comfort you in this time of sorrow.
We love you,
Johnny, Annette, EJ and Abi Davis.

“ When the Apostle Paul said, "death is last enemy", he knew the pain felt at the loss of a loved one. We look forward with you to the time when "tears and pain" have passed away. We offer our sympathy at this time of loss.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time. All my thoughts of your Mom are happy ones. I remember her wonderful rice and beans that I used to love to eat when at your house when we were teenagers. I remember loving to eat what was left at the bottom and was nice and crispy. All our love is with you Julie and your family.

“ We have so much to be thankful for to Luisa for bringing to each of us so much meaning and so much joy and love throughout our lives. Luisa lived a wonderful life, and made my life and those in my family so much more wonderful. I will always treasure the love, care, and joy she always provided...her heart and home was always open to everyone who knew her. I mourn deeply of her passing, yet I feel she will always be alive with me. I can still hear her voice. I am still discovering new images of Luisa from years past. She left us with a gift of life, all the more special because of her presence in years past. I want my daughter and grand-daughter to know more about Luisa, and I will share with them pictures and stories. With enduring love for everything you, Luisa Ingraham, have given us to last forever.
