“ To the Family of John Germano,

I had the honor of working alongside John—Detective Germano—during my time with the DeKalb County Police Department, when I was assigned to the Major Crimes Unit as a Robbery Detective. John was the kind of officer you respected immediately—motivated, dedicated, and passionate about the job. He had a presence that made an impact, and it was clear he was meant for great things.

What weighs heaviest on my heart is that the last time I saw John at work was during one of our darkest days—when we responded to the cold-blooded murder of our friend and former colleague, Detective Dennis Carmen Stepnowski. That moment remains etched in my memory, and hearing about John’s passing brings back all of the weight of that loss.

I only recently learned of his passing while reconnecting with some of our fellow former officers from DeKalb County. It broke my heart. I pray that God has welcomed John into eternal peace, and that His comfort surrounds your entire family during this time.

John was one of a kind—respected by all who worked with him, admired for his heart, and remembered with honor.

God bless you, my Brother. Semper Fi.

With deepest sympathy,

Daniel H. Rodriguez
