“ Some of my most cherished memories are of evenings spent around the table and out on the patio with this wonderful man — great food, big laughs, and conversations about politics and the world that could go on for hours. He always made me feel welcomed. He had a way of making everyone feel at home, whether we were speaking Spanish, Italian, or whatever language the moment called for. A true gentleman with a generous spirit and a sharp mind. He lived fully and loved his family deeply, and that’s exactly how I’ll always remember him. My heart is with you all. 🕊️
