“ May the Lord bless her and keep her. May He let His face shine upon her and be gracious to her. May the Lord look upon her kindly and give her His peace for all eternity.

I forgot to include this with my first post.

“ Wayne and David, what a great picture of Mabel! This is how I will remember her - with her beautiful smile, stylish hair, and perfectly fitting clothes. I know it is hard to say "good bye", but remember that you will see her again in heaven. May God comfort all of you. Lisa Yates Harris

“ "Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:6 - 7

I will be there in spirit today - so will Ms. Mabel! Sending love from Missouri - Courtney

“ Wayne, David, and family,
I was so saddened to hear that Aunt Mabel had passed away. She was one of four beautiful sisters and to a special brother. She is in heaven now . I know the angels in heaven are rejoicing that another child of God has come to her eternal home. I loved Aunt Mabel. She was such a sweet lady. Beautiful inside and out. She loved The Lord with all her heart. Even though I didn't get to see her often, when I did, it was always special. We will all see her again one day. May God wrap his loving arms around her family and comfort us as only He can.

“ Wayne and family,
We want you to know that we are so very sorry that we cant be there for you. We loved Mabel so much and we will miss her so much. She was a loving aunt and always a supportive loving person. She was there for my mom Paula when she was very sick and even when I was sick.
We know she is in heaven and getting to see her loved ones that went before her.
You will be in our thoughts and prayers tomorrow. God bless all of you. With all our love, Gene and Glenda.

“ David, your mother raised a fine son and I know she was very proud of you. When you described your mother you said she was strength, love, kindness, understanding, but also rigid, demanding, and stubborn, totally refusing to let life get her down or get in her way or her family's way. These are the same attributes I respect in you as my boss and my friend. You are the man you are today because of her positive influence in your life. I did not know you mother but I know I would have loved her, as she loved others. I thank you for everything you have done for me and what I know you do for others in your life.

“ David & Phyllis I want to pass on my condolences to you both. Your mom sounds like she was one in a million (like all our mothers are). She lived a full life and was surrounded by people she loved and who loved her. While she will be missed, she is at home with the Lord where she belongs. And, hard as it will be, would want you to continue on and remember the happy times you both had with her. We will pray for you both and for the repose of her soul. Let me know if there is anything I can do.
