I was heartbroken when I got the news about Marcy's passing. I met Marcy in 1974. We worked together for many years at Department of Agriculture, Farmer's Home Administration. We were coworkers that were friends but and over the years became family. She was my big sister. I don't have adequate words that could comfort Chris, Chet and her beloved Mehki. Marcy loved her family. I pray that God continues to comfort her family. Marcy was a special lady and well be sorely missed by all who were fortunate to have known her. Peace and Blessings

Marcy Cassandra Mack Adams was my friend of more than 54 years. We met at the U.S. Maritime Administration during a training orientation for new employees. Of about 30 people, Marcy and I ended up also working together in the same office after orientation. We worked, played, traveled and just enjoyed each other's company for the duration of our friendship. Marcy was independent, thoughtful, soft spoken though emphatic when she needed to be and I valued her friendship so very much. I've watched her and Chester's grow into adulthood, marry and have grandchildren and except for one special occasion I was present and accounted. I helped her move to Georgia and we visited each other when schedules permitted. I miss you so much Marcy. We knew when one of the ladies in our little 4-BFF group didn't receive her birthday card something was amiss. We love you, miss you, but are confident that you are resting from your labor here and enjoying your reward in heaven. Always . . . Patricia.
