“ Aunt Margaret was the most loving and kind lady to everyone she met. The love was boundless and unconditional if you were one of her family. She, along with Aunt Elaine, Lonnie Mae, and Sarah, had a great influence on my life, showing the kind of person and woman that I wanted to be. Though I am sad that we don't have her on this side of eternity with us anymore, I am elated that she is at home with her brothers and sisters in Heaven with Jesus and that one day I will get to hug her again. I love you Aunt Margaret, thank you for always having a big hug for a dirty, shoeless little girl. This is not goodbye, just see you in a little while.

“ *I am so sorry to of Margaret's passing. What a sweet sweet lady and just a beautiful person inside and out
Praying for your family during this time. But she is rejoicing with her Lord and Savior.

“ Margaret was a very special person. I am so sad to hear of her passing. Many days were spent at her house by our daughter Teresa. She was always so sweet to her and welcomed her. You are all in my prayers and thoughts. She is missed.
