“ Joyce -
You and Ed are in my prayers, as I know that your mother's presence will be missed. I take comfort in knowing that she is at peace and with her beloved husband and sons. Your parents were blessed to have you for a daughter. Your tireless devotion to them was humbling and I know that you made their final years peaceful.

“ Hi Joyce - I am sad to hear of your mother's passing. I am down with my back (can hardly walk) or would have come to the funeral home. I have sweet memories of your mother when we in high school. My thoughts and prayers are with you and may God hold you in His hands while you go thru this difficult time. I don't see you often, but love you.
