

Marie Landrum Harrison

November 20, 1920 - June 8, 2020

Marie Landrum Harrison, age 99, passed away peacefully on June 8, 2020. Marie was born in rural Brooksville, FL, on November 10, 1920, to Evan Price Landrum and Mary Tennessee Dingus Landrum. She graduated from Citrus High School in Inverness, FL. She attended the University of Florida and graduated from Tampa University with a degree in education. She began her teaching career at age 20 in a small school in Hernando County, FL, that consisted of eight grades with only one teacher. She taught various levels of students in Florida public schools for 43 years! In addition to teaching many children in public schools, she taught children in Sunday School for years. She also taught adult ladies in Sunday School classes and worked in her church daycare and nursery until she was 94! Marie enjoyed helping others gain knowledge and skills that would help them in life, regardless of age! She just loved teaching! She was predeceased by her beloved husband of 50 years, Edwin Watts Harrison, and her sons Edwin Watts Harrison, JR, and Russell Wade Harrison - also her brother and four sisters. She is survived by her twin sister Mary Landrum Harrison of Floral City, FL, and her sister Juanita Thomason of Baker City, OR. Because of failing health in 2015, she left her home of fifty years in the Tampa, FL, area and moved to the Atlanta, GA, area to live with her loving niece and her husband, Lynn and Rudy Hagen. Marie was a long-time member of the First Baptist Church of Brandon, FL. She was a dedicated Christian who served the Lord in various ways for many years. She now abides with her Savior forever! A memorial service honoring Marie will take place at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Marie Landrum Harrison

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ I truly , truly enjoyed every moment that I got to spend with Mrs. Marie. She was a beautiful person inside and out and I looked forward to every visit with her. It does my heart good to know that she is finally at rest with her husband and sons whom she loved and missed so dearly. My condolences to Lynn and her family. She will be missed. ~ L. Ellis-McCutcheon

L. Ellis-McCutcheon - July 16, 2020 at 03:10 AM