“ We were in the same Sunday School class with Rick and Marilyn until we were unable to go, because of the Covid epidemic. She was already suffering from the effects of Alzheimer's, but she always faithful to be there and she was very sweet. I know it must have been very challenging for her, but Rick was so faithful to bring her. She must have been an exceptional mother to have been so devoted to her family and always asking for prayers for them with Rick. I know she will be dearly missed. We have always kept her and Rick in our prayers over the years, and are so very sorry for her families loss. May God comfort you all and give you peace, because I know she is in heaven now.

“ My Aunt Marilyn was the best. Always kind and encouraging. She was so gifted with crafting, cooking and just making things special. I loved her cakes and her veggie “pizza” she'd always bring to family gatherings. I loved her when I was little, but I connected with her much more as an adult. She would call me on the phone when I moved to SC. I look forward to the day when I see her again!
