“ Many prayers for my friend Marilyn. We were so close during our years in Richmond, VA. When our husbands were on road trips during baseball season, I spent the nights with Marilyn and Valerie. Marilyn was so good to me. She treated me like a sister. We kept in touch for a time and I lost track of her until recently. I have been looking for her for the last two years. I wanted to talk to her so much. Rest in Peace, sweet lady. I will see you on the other side. Much love is sent to you and your family. JoAnn Bronstad

“ So sorry to hear this sad news. I worked with Marilyn at Peachtree Bank and she was one of the nicest people I ever knew. Always smiling and just a wonderful lady.
