“ Marilyn was "one of a kind." She was like "family" to us. We loved her for being a loyal friend, Auburn fan, and true to her faith and beliefs. She could be a handful at times, but she had a heart of gold too. We will miss but always remember you! Enjoy your just rewards in Heaven.

“ *I am so sorry for the family. I did not know about Lynn until just now seeing it in the Flanigan obituary. Kathy and I were just talking about the twins today and I told her I was going to ask about them. Prayers for you all .
Love, Jan.*

“ Marilyn was a sweet person and had a kind heart. We always enjoyed our discussions about who had the best team, Georgia Bulldogs or Auburn Tigers. She was definitely one of the Tigers most loyal fans. May you rest peacefully in heaven.

“ Marilyn loved cards. I was always touched and appreciative of the thoughts and effort she put into selecting just the “right” card for the person she was remembering. She had a good heart. She enjoyed politics and sports, especially her beloved Auburn Tigers. R.I.P. Marilyn.
