“ Dear Wright Family:

I know this is a difficult time for you, please accept my sincere condolences. "Blessed be the God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." (2 Corinthians 1:3)

"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." (John 5:28, 29)

I look forward to the day when all of us will see our dear loved ones again!

*Again, my condolences,
Shelly R.*

“ My condolences to the Wright family. It is a painful thing to lose a precious love one in death. Even Jesus wept when Lazarus died (John 11:35) and it pains our Creator, too. Our loving Heavenly Father did not purpose his human family to grow old and die but purpose us to live and enjoy life. It is still his purpose (Psalms 37:11, 29). He calls death an enemy that will be removed forever__ (1 Corinthians 15:26 "The last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing"; Isaiah 25:8). He promised to awaken our love ones in the memorial tombs from asleep in death__ Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will rise ...Awake and shout joyfully you residents in the dust! ...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life" then he will reverse the aging process__ Job 33:24,25 "Let his flesh become fresher than in youth; Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor." What a delight it will be to see them again to enjoy life as our Creator purposed! Allow these words to keep comforting all of you.

“ Condolences to your family. May you receive comfort from the word of God during this time of loss. Acts 24:15 says there will be a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous. Can you imagine the joy of Martha and Mary when Jesus raised Lazarus back to life?- Read John 11:21-24, 38-44. Revelation 21:3,4 promises that one day death, mourning, and outcry will be no more.
