

Marion Wilton Minor

January 30, 2012

Marion Wilton Minor was born June 24, 1921 and after numerous years of heart and other medical problems passed on to a better life on Monday, January 30, 2012. He was preceded in death by his parents, Marion McCarter Minor and Anna Kathleen Williams Minor and sister, Kathleen "Teenie" Lafayette Minor Teagle. He spent most of his life in the Atlanta area and was always known as "Buck". He is survived by his loving wife of sixty-five years, Maggie Carol Allen Minor, son, Mark Alan Minor and long time girlfriend Susan Barron, daughter, Beth Minor and husband, Mark Alan Bates. Not to be forgotten, Zorro, a special grand dog and the children's baker dozen of rescued and stray grand cats. While attending college, he enlisted to serve his country during World War II. Upon his military activation, he was assigned to the 14th Armored Division, 68th Armored Infantry Battalion serving in Europe. The division became known as the "Liberators". His decorations include the Combat Infantry Badge and Bronze Star. "Buck" was proud to be a member of the "Greatest Generation". In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to FurKids (a no-kill animal rescue 501 (c) 3 organization), P. O. Box 191102, Atlanta, GA 31119, www.furkids.org. Graveside service and interment will be on Friday, February 3, 2012 at 12:30 p.m. at Georgia National Cemetery in Canton, GA with Dr. Lamar Holley officiating and with military honors.

“ *Dearest Carol & Family:
Please know that "Our Prayers Form the Circle that Surrounds You." You will have many "firsts" in the days, months and years to come....through God all things are possible.....and your friends are there for you too.
With Deepest Sympathy.

“ *You all are in my thoughts and prayers; I will continue praying for peace during this difficult time. Nine years ago, Steve and I greatly appreciated Buck and Carol for being Chris' first-ever babysitters - knowing we left our baby in good hands. Buck and Carol will always have a special place in our hearts.
Blessings,
