“ I send my love and prayers to the Haag& Mirkes family. It was a pleasure soo many years ago being a neighbor to The Mirkes Family, and "babysitter" for Marisa and Tess in Sherman. When I was told Marisa had passed, I was saddened, but I was then reminded of what a miracle her life was. I didn't get to meet her as an adult but knew that the little girl I knew beat the odds when she was a baby, a heart condition did not stop what God had planned for her life. She matured and became a wife, mother and woman of God. I do thank God for allowing me to meet her and her wonderful family. May God continue to cover the Haag, Mirkes, Jonse family and surround you all with His love. Love always, Kim G

“ David & I met Marisa & Brian on New Year's Eve through a friend of ours and hers, Melissa Storm. Though we didn't know her well, I can tell from stories that Melissa told us that she was a very special person and will be deeply missed. So sorry for your loss. Please stay strong for Connor and know that Marisa is watching over you and is in a better place with no pain or suffering.

“ It is 4pm and I stopped in my tracks and felt this connection from Minnesota to Georgia. I tried to describe the warrior Marisa to people here and all stop and pause and say a silent prayer. Your touched all of us and remain with us. My heart is breaking...Love Jo DeBruycker

“ Marisa was my best friend and I am so honored to have known her. I can remember the day we met in middle school french class and she displayed Maris-A-Vision and I couldn't stop laughing, I knew we were going to get along just fine. I have seen her through both the highs and lows (and she has seen me through mine) and she was an inspiration. So many people I have encountered complain about their woes yet Marisa, of all people had every reason to complain, but didn't. This is what made her so special. She was, is, and always will be my best friend.

“ Ms Monica - My heart aches for you in the loss of your daughter. Those of us who have been a part of the life of a chronically ill child know the helplessness - and the overwhelming joy - of the ups and downs. How lucky you were to have shared her life, and to have her live on in Connor. I pray that God gives you comfort and eases the pain you and your family must endure during this time.

“ Some people have family, some people earn family... Marisa will always be close to my heart, and forever my sister. She holds a special part in my heart. She was a giving, caring, loving sister. Her actions spoke louder than words, her heart was larger than life. she will be missed, the world lost out on a valuable soul.. and heaven gained a priceless angel. I know she is looking down and watching out for us, with that perfect smile.. the one that lifts our spirits.

We Love You Marisa... I miss you..

“ Growing up all I ever looked forward to was to spend my summer with aunt monica uncle terry risa and tess :) risa always made me laugh and I always wanted to grow up to be just like her..... this past monday I was lucky enough to spend my day with her...y son was lucky enough to meet her.. of course he loved her right away.

She will never know how she changed my life.

I am so sorry I cannot make the celebration of her life, being stuck here in texas I will carry her in my heart for always and love her for eternity. I pray for the family, I love you all.

We all have our own special angel. This world did not deserve her, she was one of gods greatest gifts, a true angel on earth.

I love you for always ris.

“ Our deepest condolences for the family as we mourn the loss of Marisa. Connor is such a wonderful little boy and we have truly been blessed to know Marisa, Brian, and Connor through Monica. You will all be in our hearts in the coming weeks and months. Please know we will care for Connor as we would our own children. May peace be with Brian, Connor, and Marisa's family. With sympathy from your friends at Oak Meadow Montessori School.

“ I cannot understand why this had to be. But I cannot presume to understand why things are the way they are. Know this. I would take this from you if I could. I pray now for you're strength and not to get passed this as much as to take this with you in such a way that it becomes a part of you without taking away what you are. She was a brilliant soul Brian, my thoughts to you and your son.
