“ We’re so sorry about Mark. As his neighbors, we got to know each other talking about guitar music and the ups and downs of life. He was interesting and he was real. I liked talking with him because he was honest and didn’t mind being straightforward while contemplating various viewpoints. I’m glad I had the opportunity to know him for the little time that I did. May God bless and comfort all the Baker family.

“ Mark, all that I have been able to see for the past week is you sitting across from me in the sandbox at about 3 or 4 years old, singing whatever song went along with your favorite commercial of the day. I can remember driving down from Fort Bragg on the weekends to visit you in college and finding you sitting on a shower bench in the large, shared dorm bathroom playing your guitar. You were right, the acoustics were definitely better in there. You've left behind five plus decades of memories that I will always cherish, along with 4 of the most perfect examples of your love and kindness. Ashley, Ally, Grace and Mark will keep your bright light shining, and are so fortunate to have you as their personal guardian angel. Rest in peace, buddy, I love you very much, and will miss you terribly. Don't forget to give Mom a hug for me!

“ Mark was a good and kind man who loved his family and friends. He volunteered his time to work with others and was always there to help me with a technical question. I loved hearing him play his guitar, and goof around with anyone there. My favorite memory is of having dinner with him and Cathy in Hoschton. It was 5 of us there and Mark cooked on the grill, boy can he grill! We had a great time sharing lots of laughs and special memories. I LOVED the picture Cathy painted for him. It was an Abstract done in beautiful colors. Tell Dad, Billy and Steven hello for me when you see them! You will be sorely missed!

“ It's been many years since I last spent time with Mark. Hearing of his passing caused me to reflect on my memories of him. He was a genuinely good person and filled the space around him with an infectious positivity. While he left us far too soon, he will live on as part of our most treasured memories. Even through today's tears those memories make me smile...all of 30 years later.

“ Mark was a real pleasure to work with. He was calm and thoughtful as well as considerate and was highly respected by all who knew him.
Hopefully he is having a good cigar now. He will be missed.

“ I worked with Mark for many years at EY, and always enjoyed being with him. He was always upbeat and added a positive element to each meeting. I retired several years ago, and Mark is one of the people I missed. I am sorry to hear of his passing - he was a terrific person.
