“ I haven't lived in commerce but a few months, but on the 3rd day I met Mark at the only other person I knew here which was already a close friend to him. From that time I felt he was a good man. He had a big caring heart and would do anything to help someone. He was always the same friendly smiling man. Even at times he was tired from a hard day's work he would stop by to talk. Me, Mark and Teressa spent many hours on the porch talking. We've already started to miss the time without Mark. We going to miss you. Love you our friend. Teressa Godfrey and Guy Smith.
