“ I am heartbroken to hear of Marks death. Mark and I had a lot in common and we have known one another for well over 25 years. We may not have spoken all the time but when we did, it was like we didn't skip a beat. He will be missed, but he will always always be in my heart what a great man. I love you, Mark Pergolini. I'll be saying my prayers for you up in heaven.

“ Mark was a true visionary and full of energy when he lured me away from Travelers Ins. case management, to start up a telephonic case management department in the ICM medical services company in 1997.

In later years, we both worked for Wright Rehabilitation Services and Wright Medical Services, Inc. , Woodstock, Ga.

He was so excited to become a father and literally bought Max, as a baby to work every chance. Fun and intellectual conversations at work, always inspiring. Great person and will be missed.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Marks passing. When he moved in next door to us we knew we were blessed with a wonderful new neighbor. We watched him work tirelessly on the renovation of his new home. He had so much vision and brought this home to life! The inside was unrecognizable and so beautiful! He made the outside absolutely gorgeous as well. Rest in peace Mark. Prayers for your family.
