“ Hey Momma,

Missing you now 3 years. Well, your grandson, our son JR showed up here. 2 weeks later he took his life, he was dying. He was 41. Since you are gone, perhaps he is with you? I don't know. We are burying him in Military Cemetery in FL. We are doing this in March. Oh Momma how I miss you.

Love, Sherrie

“ Marlene has been a big part of our life for the past 15 years. She seemed like family and we loved her dearly. She was "one of kind" and probably the most thoughtful person we've ever known. It was so sad to see her struggle and suffer with this terrible disease. We are so sorry to lose her, but know she is not in pain any longer and at peace. We will miss her so much but she will always be in our heart.

“ Mom was a generous soul who always put others' happiness above her own. It was very sad to see her fade. Now she is no longer in pain, but we are very sad. Rest in Peace.

“ Hey Momma,

I am missing you already. What really touched me yesterday when you left was your teardrop rolling down your cheek. I don't think you'll ever know how much you meant to me, the wonderful Mom and lady you were, most excellent example of a lady <--(even though I defeated that purpose). It was an honor having you in my life as my Mom. I love you I miss you I am crying again and I will try daily to carry on. Love always, Your 'Lil" punkin, Sherrie RIP and Be with the Lord.
