“ Mister Suggs:

I express my deepest and most sincere, personal condolences for the exasperating loss of your dear mother. Rest easy knowing she enjoys the Beatific Vison; that is, she sees God.

Your mother is in Paradise, so do not mourn as the unbeliever does. You'll see her again some day. As she looks on from the afterlife, honor her memory in submission to her commands and her raising of you. Surely, she is proud of how you turned out.

Your mother loved you very much, and I love you too.
