“ Aunt Martha or Ree Ree as she was affectionately called by our family, will be missed. She loved her family & any gathering was not complete without her laughter filling the room. She loved to show all the “littles” how to buck dance. In fact, she probably taught Nathan to do the Chicken Dance. Ree Ree went on many camping trips with us. She & Guinnie could cook up stacks & stacks of pancakes in the “flip of a spatula” served with a huge side of crispy bacon. She loved sitting around the campfire reminiscing & listening to stories told by others, especially “Milo”. We will all miss her, but never forget her.
