“ Marvin and I were in the same graduating class at Crestwood High school. We both were pretty much quiet guys in class so he would not remember me. But, I so much respect his being an Army guy for 11 years & I was in only for 3 years. We both would have gone into the Army at a very tough time. I also respect and am happy that Marvin was a Christian and knew the most important thing in life. I am sure he also has a wonderful family and am very happy knowing that Marvin's life was so full and successful. Jerry Kintz

“ Marvin was always ready to help his fellow RVers if they had mechanical issues. He always had a smile and was so very kind. I always teased Pat and called him my boyfriend. He always got such a laugh out of that. Truth is he looked exactly like my oldest uncle. It always warmed my heart to see him because he reminded me of him
