“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family . I went to high school with Maryjane. She was lots of fun. Her laughter could fill a room. We danced with friends to country music all over Long Island . After many years of life moving on; we reconnected 3 or 4 years ago and caught up with each other. I am glad we did.. I know she will be missed.

“ Steve, Stephen, Kevin, and Siobhan,

Words cannot express the sadness I feel in the loss of Mary Jane. She brought so much joy and laughter to everyone she met. I will be forever grateful for the wonderful memories she created for students in my class as she was the best room mom ever!!! She was such a precious friend and was always a lot of fun to be around. Her laughter along with her servant's heart has touched so many lives, especially mine. You will remain in my thoughts and prayers!

“ We will greatly miss Mama Dascall. MJ was so fun and clearly loved her family with a fierce loyalty, always telling us stories of how proud she was of Kevin, Stephen, and Siobhan. I also remember her boasting on her husband for bringing her back "the best black/white cookies in New York". She brought the coveted cookies and shared them with us!! I am praying for all of you and will think of MJ often.
