

Mary Jane Fuller

April 26, 2018

Mary Jane Fuller (1946 - 2018)

Mary Jane (Dwiggins) Fuller was born on May 14th, 1946 at St. Joseph's hospital in Atlanta, Georgia. She lived in the Atlanta area for most of her life, and grew up with three sisters (Margaret Ann, Debbie, and Sue Ellen Jett) and one brother (Steve Dwiggins). She loved horses and fast cars (a love she carried into her later years, when she bought a sleek Corvette for her 70th birthday). She raised three sons, Lance, Danny, and Jeff Mercer and took tremendous pride in their accomplishments, most especially her nine grandchildren.

Mary Jane had an adventurous spirit, and enjoyed traveling with her friends and family. Her world travels included the U.K., France, Switzerland, Italy, Mexico, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand, the Kingdom of Tonga, Puerto Rico, St. Croix, and Panama.

In addition to travel, Mary Jane loved to dance. It was through dance that she both met and reconnected with her great love, her husband Brian Fuller. They married in 2010 and together they danced their way through the state of Georgia and around the world. Who would have guessed there was such a thing as a line-dance cruise? Mary Jane and Brian knew.

She was unfailingly generous with everyone in her life, including her human children and grandchildren, as well as those of the animal variety -- no cat, dog, or even possum went unloved on Mary Jane's watch. She formed unique and extraordinary relationships with the people in her life, and had a way of making everyone who was close to her feel special and loved. She was a woman of many titles: wife, mom, daughter, sister, aunt, grandma, step-mom, and best friend and she valued every one of them fiercely. Woe be it to the person who spoke badly of anyone in her family!

Mary Jane passed away on April 26, 2018 after a period of illness. We remember her as warm, loving, funny, and giving. She loved to laugh, was always supportive, and was always ready to celebrate even the most minor of victories with those she loved. Her family and friends look forward to seeing her again in whatever adventure lies next, both because they miss her beyond measure, and because they might finally get to know the true color of her hair.

Mary Jane was preceded in death by her father, Daniel Ford Dwiggins, and her sister, Margaret Ann Jett.

She is survived by her husband, Brian Fuller, sons Lance (Melinda) Mercer, Danny (Marne) Mercer, and Jeff (Christine) Mercer, mother Betty Holbrook, sisters Debbie Tanksley and Sue Ellen Carpenter, brother Steve Dwiggins, nine grandchildren (Justis, Ariana, Ryder, Alex, James, Sophie, Ronin, Marcus, and Elizabeth Mercer), step-mother Evelyn Dwiggins, niece Jennifer Carpenter, nephews Charlie and Ben Tanksley and Drew Carpenter, and good friends Debbie Chambers and Katrena Jackson.

Memorial services will be held Tuesday, May 8th, Flanigan Funeral Home, 4400 South Lee Street, Buford, GA at 7:00 PM. Visitation 5:00 -7:00 PM.

"Who can know the thoughts of Mary Jane

Why she flies or goes out in the rain.
Where she's been and who she's seen,
In her journey to the stars."

“ I am heartbroken to hear that Mary Jane crossed over. I love her gentle spirit and beautiful soul. When I met MJ in 1991, we connected immediately and became the best of friends. She was truly a being full of love and light. I moved to Michigan 10 years ago and we didn't stay in touch often enough but my heart was happy that she married her soul mate, Brian, and I was glad to see her happiness. I'm struggling with the fact that she is gone and I never got to say goodbye, even though I know she is dancing with the angels and will be watching over all of us until we meet again. I will forever miss you MJ until we do meet again!

“ It's been a joy to share with MaryJane and Brian. MaryJane always hugged me as if she missed me dearly and had been waiting anxiously and excitedly for us to be together. That's just the way Mary Jane made me feel. She was a darling, lovable sparkle in my life. I will miss her dearly. My thoughts and prayers go out to Brian and MaryJane's loved ones. Sharing your sorrow with love, Barby

“ I am a dancer and did not get to know Mary Jane well, but could not help but know she was such a sweet spirit and that she really cared about people. She would always make a point of saying hello to me and ask how I was doing, when I would see her at dance class. I know that she struggled with health issues but she never complained. Her presence in our dance community will be missed. We love you Mary Jane.

“ Brian, I am honored that you thought of informing me about Mary Jane. I had no idea she was sick. I have missed you both and the good times we had dancing together. I enjoyed our hugs & laughs. After reading Mary Jane's obit, it is obvious what a truly wonderful human being she was. I'm so happy you had each other to share life with. I will be in Utah and will have to miss the service. May you find comfort in your memories of such a beautiful lady.

“ This lovely lady was the beloved aunt of my best friend, and although I didn't see Mary Jane all the time, when I did see her, she always was so kind to me and treated me like family. My heart breaks for her family and close friends, she was truly a blessing and will be missed so much!

“ For All of Us who are grieving the loss our Sweet Mary Jane

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain,
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds circled in flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night,
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there I did not die....
Mary Elizabeth Frye - 1932
I will always be in deep gratitude for being blessed with her presence in my life. Mary Jane I will feel you brushing my cheek in the gentle breezes. Lovingly Denise*

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mary Jane & I have been dear friends for almost 67years. Even though we did not live in the same town now, I always knew she was there for me as I was for her. We have so many sweet memories as I am sure her family knows. My heart is broken, but I know God will help me with dealing with this loss of a precious friend. May God be with your family. I am so glad that I got to meet her sweet husband, Brian, and see her new house. Mary Jane had stated to me that she felt so fortunate; she is married to the love of her life, has her dream house and is driving the sharpest car on the block!! We all want to embrace the memories as we deal with the pain.

“ The circle is broken for family and friends in the sphere of Mary Jane's love. She was a unique and lovely person. Life will not be the same without her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends

I still smile when I remember our afternoon walks, with Mary Jane pulling a red wagon, in which Lady (her chubby dachshund) was seated on a pillow enjoying the scenery. Sometimes it took both of us to get her to the top of the hill.

I was privileged to travel to Costa Rica with her and at the end of the 7 day tour, everyone on the bus had fallen in love with Mary Jane.

She was a gentle spirit, who had a zest for life. She used to take me to square dances where she danced every dance. She loved dancing. She started kayaking and went when she could.

To me, she was a dear friend, a confidant, a one person booster club, a dedicated shopper, a source of happiness and everything one could ask for in a friend.

I will miss her sweet sprit and all the good times we had. I still smile at the image of her on our evening walks, with her pulling a wagon with Lady (her chubby dachshund) riding on a pillow in comfort. Our walking route was hilly and it sometimes took us both to get the wagon to the top the hill.

“ *To the family,
Losing a wife a mother a grandmother and a good friend is understandable hard to bear. Just thinking of a time when you can see and hold her again seems to be unreal. Jesus said that there will be a time for a resurrection of life, and what is impossible for man is not impossible for God. Trust what the bible says and cherish those memories of seeing Mary Dwiggins again. My prayers are with this family, John 5:28-29.*
