“ Mary and I went to college together 20 years ago, and were members of the same social service club at Lee College. Mary was one of the most sweetest, kindest, individuals, that you would ever want to meet. The world has lost a beautiful person in Mary, and I pray for all of her family and friends. I ask that God will give everyone strength, in this time of loss. I thank God for the years that I was able to know Mary, and call her my "Upsilon Little Sister", but most importantly, a friend.

“ Sometimes a smile can hide a fragile and troubled heart. I recently lost both my sister and husband - they too struggled and lost against illnesses that most of us can't understand. My prayer is that God grants you comfort in knowing Mary's pain is over and she is at peace in God's arms.

“ We are so sad and heart broken to hear of Mary's death. We loved her very much, and she was a wonderful woman. She had the best smile, and even though we lived far away from each other, we could tell she was doing her best to live the happiest life she could. She had struggles, but she tried to be honest about them so as to help others, but that wasn't enough. Her troubling thoughts plagued her, and she was in emotional pain. Now that Mary has died, it is comforting to know that she's no longer being tried by these thoughts. However, this leaves the people she left behind to grieve and try to heal their hearts. We as God's creation were not designed to die, at Ecclesiastes 3:11 it says "He has put eternity in their heart" so death was not part of Gods purpose for us. We want to live a long life with our loved ones by our sides, that's why we are all grieving Mary's death so terribly. The good news is that death will not be a part of life forever. God will step in and remedy this issue once and for all. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 we read, "and the last enemy, death, will be brought to nothing" and at Isaiah 25:8 it says, "He will swallow up death forever." We can look forward to a future where death, sorrow, outcry, and pain will be no more (Rev 21:4) Furthermore, we can look forward to living on earth in peaceful conditions as described at Isaiah 35:5,6 "at that time the eyes of the blind will be opened and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. At that time the lame will leap like the deer, and the tongue of the speechless will shout for joy" where Mary will once again be with us (John 5:28,29)

In the meantime, as we await those future promises from God, we will miss Mary. We pray that God may heal our broken hearts and grant us comfort during these times of grief.

“ I don't think Mary fully understood the hope and joy that she brought into so many lives. She was truly a vessel. In her strength, she poured into us. And in her weakness, allowed us to demonstrate the compassion that covers a multitude of sins. I wish I could have been present to hear those beautiful words spoken to Mary "Well done, good and faithful servant"

“ Sweet Mary,
I'm so grateful to have been a part of your life and part of your journey! My heart breaks, but I am glad you're not suffering any longer. I will never forget your sweet, dainty voice, and your contagious laugh. You were a beautiful soul, and now your spirit lives on with us forever. I love you Mary. Rest in Peace and watch over us until we meet again.

“ We loved Mary! It is difficult at this time to find words. Praying that the family over time will be able to heal and that all know she loved you. She had a war inside her and the only comfort we know is that she is now at peace in the loving arms of Jesus! We think fondly of her and look forward to seeing her again when we all pass over to the other side. She was a beautiful person. XOXO
