“ Eugene & Nicole: Having met Mary only a few years ago when you came to Hartsville and we had dinner together, I quickly knew this was a woman with spunk, drive, out-spoken (like me), liked a glass of wine and laughed to laugh.

It was always amazing the few times we saw her the wonderful political and social discussions we would have. Never resolved any problems but was fun trying.

I am so sorry for your loss. We all have to remember that Miss Mary is in a better place. And the best part is Dale Earnhardt, Sr. will be up in heaven helping her get the best seat in the house of the Heaven's Nascar Race. (You mom was so very excited when she went to the Darlington race and what a joy it was to hear her talk about it.

Both of you are in our thoughts and hope you will be able to find the peace that will make this loss feel a little lighter.
