“ Mom will be missed very much but we know her and dad are together again. She stayed here to be a grandmother great grandmother and mom to her family as long as she could. She cared for her kids and grandkids as long as she could until the time came she could do so no longer. Then she became the one we cared for. Rhonda Morgan Joel and Edwinna were there for her needs most during her last year with us. It was a hard road to travel and she gave it a good fight. We will miss those precious moments we had with both mom (Mary) and dad (Larry) very much but we know we will see them again.
