

Mary "Renee" Creighton Sacerdote

June 26, 1937 - February 1, 2021

Mary Renee Creighton Sacerdote, age 83, of Suwanee, GA passed away Monday, February 1, 2021. She is survived by her husband of sixty-one years, Edward A. Sacerdote, Suwanee, GA; children, David (Kristine) Sacerdote, Suwanee, GA, Craig Sacerdote, Oak Ridge, NJ, Mary Ellen (Robert) Jones, Flemington, NJ; grandchildren, Adam Sacerdote, Nicholas Sacerdote, Jack Jones; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mrs. Sacerdote was born June 26, 1937 in Brooklyn, NY. She was a graduate of Fontebonne Hall Academy in Brooklyn. Following her marriage to Edward in 1959, they raised their 3 children in Pequannock Township, NJ, where they remained residents for over thirty years. Following retirement, the couple relocated to Jackson, NJ and finally to Suwanee, GA in 2015.

Edward and Renee loved travel and did so frequently. They enjoyed touring the Middle East, Europe, and the United States, and enjoyed cruises throughout Europe, the Caribbean, Central America, and the Pacific.

Mrs. Sacerdote was a certified substance abuse counsellor, and a founder of Eva's Village Halfway House (Paterson, NJ) along with Rev. Msgr. Vincent Puma. She served as a Director for fifteen years until her retirement in 1997. She was a member of the Catholic Church of St. Monica in Duluth, GA.

A private Graveside Service will be held Friday, February 5, 2021 at 12:00 p.m. at Gwinnett Memorial Park, Lawrenceville, GA with Father Deacon Bob Tipton officiating. Interment will be at Gwinnett Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Eva's Village in Paterson, NJ - <https://evasvillage.networkforgood.com/projects/12436-eva-s-village>.
