“ There are no words that can express our heart-felt sympathy for all of the Walker/McAvoy families for the loss of Mary. She will be greatly missed. As I heard that grandchild, Victoria, was already sewing on the sewing machine, making something Honey had taught her, I know that Mary would never be far away from her loved ones. I remember good times spent with Mary from pre-marriage to my brother to the last meal we all shared at California Kitchen. Our prayers will be constant during this time of loss. Love, Barbara and Judy

“ Mary, you left too soon. Shock is too mild a word to describe your death. It sounds trite, but you ARE in a better place, but selfishly we wish you were here still saying "Get a grip Kathy,"
All our love to Russ, Leann, Matt, David and Christopher. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.
