“ I am sorry Mrs. Waters passed. Memories of my childhood include her. See, my grandparents, Lee and Minnie Hogan lived 2 doors up and my great aunt Nealie Howington lived next door. I would go down to her house and she was so sweet and would invite me in and she and her poodle Gigi would sing. I was so cute how Gigi would just sing with her the minute she started humming...She lived a long life and was so sweet. I will always remember her. I saw her from time to time in Buford in the past 20 years and we would talk about Gigi...

“ *Dear Gloria and Family,
I was saddened to read of "Miss Mary's" passing. What a fulfilled life she led. As Food and Beverage Director, it was my pleasure to have her at lunch EVERY day for many years, first at Holiday Inn Suwanee and then at Holiday Inn, Gainesville. She became part of our Holiday Inn "family". She was a remarkable , self sufficient woman who was always impeccably dressed. She talked of you all so often.
My thoughts and sympathy are with you all.
