“ *Dear Youngblood Family:
I know this is a difficult time for you, please accept my sincere condolences. "Blessed be the God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." (2 Corinthians 1:3)
"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." (John 5:28, 29)
I look forward to the day when all of us will see our dear loved ones again!
Again, my condolences,
Shelly R.*

“ Susan & Jennifer,
We are so sorry for your loss! Your mother was a sweet lady, & we are blessed to have known her for many years! You & your family are in our prayers! Prior commitments, that are unable to be changed this late, hinder us from coming to visitation or the funeral, & we TRULY REGRET that. Sending love & hugs to you from us!
