“ Don:

So very sorry for your loss. MaryAnn was my first "real" manager (and the best) when I was at Arthur Andersen (now Accenture'). Her name came up in passing and I did the obvious and performed a search. To my great shock I ran across her obituary. She always spoke of you fondly and I know you had a tremendous relationship. Wanted you to know that, even though I haven't had contact with her in over 30 years. She had a tremendous influence on my life.

Best person regards,

Steve Schweiger

P.S. I've shared with one other AA alum, Craig Cauthen and he expresses his condolences as well.

“ Don,

I was shocked and devastated to hear of Mary Ann's passing. We were email buddied during our first surgery for breast cancer through Dr. Whiteman. I never knew she was not well again and I am so very sorry to have not been there for her during her time she needed support. Please accept my sincerest condolences and know that Mary Ann helped me through a hard time.

“ Don, I was both shocked and saddened to learn of Maryann's passing. Though I never had the privilege of meeting Maryann, I felt like I knew her through the many conversations we enjoyed about Ohio and cooking and Rachael Ray. You spoke often of Maryann, and I could always feel the love in your heart and the strength of your union. I know how much your heart is breaking. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers today, and I will continue to pray for your strength and comfort in the difficult days of transition that lie ahead.
In peace, love and light,
