“ Hi Aunt Molly,

I know we haven't seen much of each other over the last few years but you were always a large part of my life growing up. Helps that you guys were just down the block. :) St James preschool, choir, Chene (Shane?) park, that stupid Simon Says game at your house where you had to follow the blinking lights. All good memories for me (maybe not the Simon Says so much... ;p). I still have that blue bookcase you gave me for my first apartment back in the day. That thing is due for a paint job and a couple of nails actually...

*Love
Megan*
