“ Melanie used to come to our house and take my partner and I to doctor appointments. She was always kind, attentive, helpful, and full of love.

My partner, Vicki Stacy, died on August 24, 2018, almost 5 years to the hour after my father, Francis Raymond McCarty, Jr., died.

I have no doubt that Melanie's partner, Libbie Ficklin, will miss her terribly, as will all the people who loved her.

“ Our hearts are with you, Libbie, and all who loved Melanie. She was a kind, beautiful spirit who, even in her last difficult days, found smiles and loving words for all who visited her. Her generosity and warmth will never be forgotten. There was no brighter light in her life than her beloved Libbie, whom we hold in our prayers and our thoughts in these difficult days. Jennifer, James, Sydney, and Connor - the truth of who Melanie was, and how she lived and loved, will always survive in and through you. God bless.

“ Mel was always so sweet and so welcoming ever since the first day I met her at animal welfare. She had a very contagious smile that would light up the room. She would always ensure I wasn't hungry and offer me snacks or her jacket when I was cold. She will be missed so much! To know her was to love her!

“Melanie was a formative part of my life. She provided a sense of adventure and safety. As neighbor, friend, role model and encourager, she brought light giving life wherever she was. Even seeing her just before Christmas, she wanted to know all about our family and made sure to laugh despite her evident pain. To know her is to love her.
